Kuala Lumpur, 16 May 2025 - AmMetLife in collaboration with Kelab AmBank Group recently organised a successful blood donation drive at Menara 1 Sentrum, Kuala Lumpur. The event drew participation from 130 volunteers, including employees from AmMetLife, AmMetLife Takaful, AmBank Group and other building tenants.

Trained nurses from the National Blood Bank Centre, who were also present, screened and collected 100 bags of blood from eligible donors. In a strong show of support, the CEO of AmMetLife, Rangam Bir and Person-in-Charge/Financial Controller of AmMetLife Takaful, Pathmanathan Perumal made a special appearance to encourage and thank the donors for their meaningful contributions.

"At AmMetLife, we are committed to building a healthier, more resilient society. This blood donation drive is a small but meaningful way for us to give back to the community. I am proud of our people for stepping up and making a difference. I also like to extend my heartfelt thanks to all volunteers as well as Kelab AmBank Group and the National Blood Bank Centre for their invaluable support in this life-saving initiative," said Rangam Bir.
