AmBank Group today donated a Proton Exora MPV worth RM65,270.50 to the Lembaga Kebajikan Perempuan Islam Malaysia ("LKPIIM") for their daily use.

"This is the second time the AmBank Group is contributing a van to the Lembaga. We hope that it will provide good service to the Lembaga and their activities," said YBhg Tan Sri Azman Hashim, Chairman, AmBank Group.

"Alhamdulillah, AmBank Group has agreed to contribute a Proton Exora to the LKPIIM. Once again, I would like to extend my gratitude to AmBank Group and hopefully, with this contribution, members of the association will be able to carry out our organisation's upcoming activities that will be held throughout the country," said YMM Tuanku Ampuan Najihah binti Almarhum Tunku Besar Burhanuddin, President, Lembaga Kebajikan Perempuan Islam Malaysia.

On 7 October 2002, AmBank Group contributed a Nissan Vanette Van worth RM32,100.00 to the association in its activities to aid the underprivileged women throughout the country.

Lembaga Kebajikan Perempuan Islam Malaysia ("LKPIIM") is a Non-Governmental Organisation (NGO) that was established on 17th October 1961 to increase the welfare levels that contribute towards the development of character, family as well as the community at large and at the same time improving the education levels and global knowledge based on Islamic values. The association was established due to the concern of our first Permaisuri Agung YMM Tunku Puan

Besar Kurshiah, for the suffering and misery experienced by women facing household issues, especially those located in more rural areas.
