96 Juniors to Contest for Honours at RSGC AmBank Junior Amateur Open Golf Championship 2016 title

Last year's Boys U-15 champion Adam Madzri from Kelab Golf Negara Subang (KGNS) will challenge for the U-18 Boys title in the RSGC AmBank Junior Amateur Open Golf Championship 2016 when it tees off at The Royal Selangor Golf Club (RSGC) from tomorrow until Thursday, 31 March 2016.

Featuring a total of 96 junior golfers, the tournament would also see golfers coming from other countries such as Singapore, Indonesia, Australia and Philippines.

Adam won his age-group title last year, despite his tender age of 13-years old, weeks before his 14 birthday to finish 14 strokes ahead of Lee Chong Li from Johor Golf and Country Club. Chong Li is also returning to play in this tournament.

With this year's format of two age-group categories consisting of both U-18 Boys and Girls, Adam will have his work cut out as last year's U-18 champion, Kevin Akbar from Indonesia will be looking at repeating his triumph. The U-18 Girls category will see national junior golfers Natasha Andrea Oon and Geraldine Wong taking on the tough Philippines golfers who swept last year's Girl's titles.

As the title sponsor for the fifth RSGC AmBank Junior Amateur Open Golf Championship 2016, AmBank Group is further strengthening its commitment to developing junior golf.

The Group is currently the main sponsor for the SportExcel Junior Golf Championship Grand Finals which has been held for the last 10 years. AmBank Group is also the current Official Bank for RSGC and the Olympic Council of Malaysia.
