

AmMetLife launches new endowment plan for building wealth and staying protected

- Three-year premium paying insurance plan with yearly guaranteed cash payment and maturity benefit

Kuala Lumpur, May 23 2022 – AmMetLife Insurance Berhad (“AmMetLife”) has launched WealthMaster, a non-participating limited premium universal life endowment plan, which provides customers the opportunity to build and preserve wealth while staying protected. Customers can enjoy the plan benefits of a 15-year insurance policy with only three years of premium payment. This plan is designed to provide a yearly guaranteed cash payment* equal to 9% of annual premium. In addition, the plan also provides a maturity benefit* of 184% of annual premium or account value, whichever is higher. Besides the financial returns, this plan also provides protection for death and total and permanent disability.

Lee Jiau Jiunn, Chief Executive Officer, AmMetLife Insurance Berhad, said “As the nation prepares to transition to an endemic phase, it was important for us as insurance provider to support our customers with products and solutions to help them live a more confident future. WealthMaster is the latest edition to our expanding portfolio of products that addresses the changing expectations of our customers for short-term premium paying plans that provide insurance protection and investment returns.”

From now until July 10, 2022, WealthMaster is available to individuals, aged 30 days up to 70 years (next birthday). Enrolment for WealthMaster is also hassle-free, with no medical and financial assessment requirement.
